DEAR COLLEAGUES!

I would like to welcome
the participants of Musin Readings
2022. Actual Issues of Energy Law.

Every year the conference brings together scientists, practitioners, and young specialists in energy law. Today, the opportunity to meet and discuss the issues of legal regulation in the fuel and energy sector is especially valuable for all of us.

Musin Readings are a highly professional scientific and practical discussion platform for identifying priority tasks in improving national laws.

I wish the participants successful work and fruitful cooperation!
